

Wisconsin State ID Without Photo

Accepted Voter Identification

Who is included?

Wisconsin Residents With a Sincere Religious Belief Against Being Photographed who Apply for a State ID Card

If you wish to obtain an ID for voting purposes, but have spiritual beliefs which prevent you from being photographed, you can receive a State ID card without a photo at any Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) office.

Voter ID Law

THE WI STATE ID CARD WITHOUT A PHOTO IS A STATUTORY ID THAT CAN BE USED AS PROOF OF IDENTIFICATION TO VOTE.

For voting purposes, this document must be unexpired or if expired have expired after the date of the most recent general election: currently, November 2, 2010

- You must provide the same documentation to the DMV as any other person requesting a State ID card. This includes proof of identity, legal presence, name and date of birth, and residency.
- You must also file an affidavit which states that you have a sincere religious belief against being photographed. The affidavit is available at any DMV service center. You should request it from DMV staff.
- You may receive this ID for free if you check the appropriate box on the application form.

What does it look like?

Who can I contact?

WI Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV)

To find more information concerning drivers license or state card ID receipts call (608) 264-7447.

or visit www.dot.state.wi.us

SEARCH | Drivers & Vehicles